

I am very please with the results of the Indiana "Do Not Call" law - now we have peace and quiet in our house at suppertime!
We really appreciate not having to answer the phone and deal with tele-marketers who are selling something we are not interested in buying!